NEW YORK TRIP RECAP

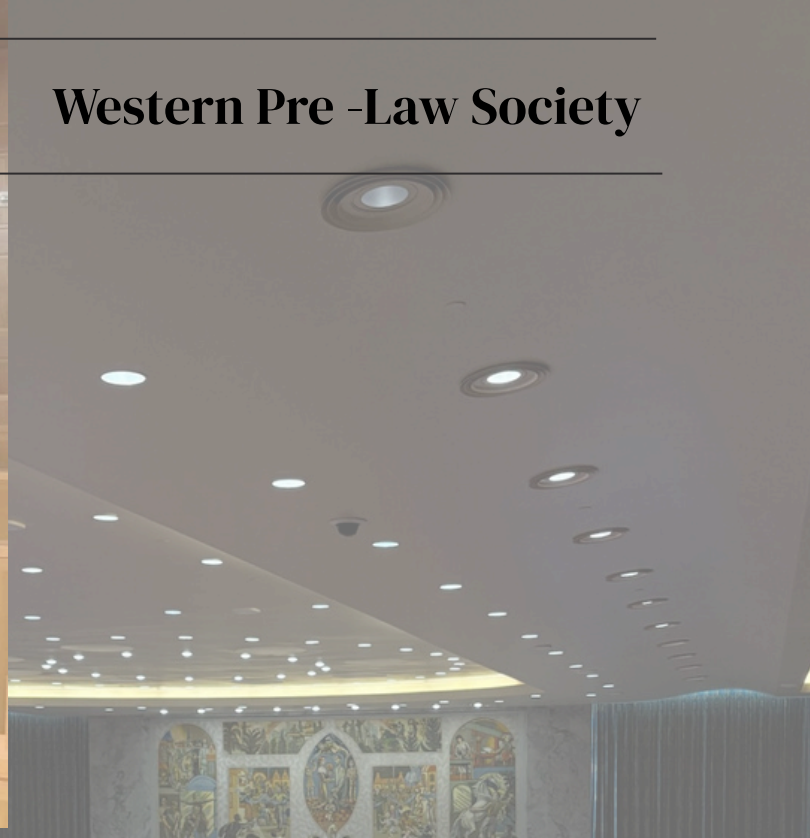

In January, our WPLS group headed to New York City for an awesome four-day trip with our New York pre-law team. It was a great chance to explore the legal world, meet new people, and experience the city together.

Here is a look at what we experienced during our time in New York City!

- Toured Fordham Law School and learned more about their programs and student life.
- Visited NYU Law School, followed by an informative Q&A session with a current NYU law student.
- Toured the law firm White & Case, attended an information session, and had the opportunity to network with lawyers and recruiters.
- Explored the United Nations Headquarters on a guided tour.
- Visited the New York Bar Association and got to take home some amazing souvenirs from the New York Bar Association library.
- Attended a fun networking dinner with lawyers and law students, where we shared great conversation, asked great questions, and built valuable connections

Thanks to everyone who came on the trip and helped make it such a fun and memorable experience — we loved sharing it with you all!
